Lynda,

Reviewing now. Something looks off. We will get back to you ASAP.

Thanks,

Marc

Marc, here is a second email on the same piece.

Trying to go to print asap. I wasn't part of that earlier discussion. And not sure I understand the issue.

Can you confirm is this accurate? Please call me if needed. Want to get this printed now.

I see y'all were busy yesterday afternoon (I was in back-to-back meetings, followed by personal appointments).

I wanted to raise that Marc left me a voicemail Monday morning (I forwarded that to you Lynda) raising concerns about putting separate columns for ARC vs Waterboard. Maybe he feel differently now that the numbers are very similar? Lynda did you talk to him? Or do you believe this is no longer a concern?

Also, in one email you asked for Marc's contact information to be included. It's not. I don't believe including the RPs contact information is the best approach (or it is at least an approach to discuss).
